The Calera Housing Authority has prepared its Agency Plan in compliance with Section 511 of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 (QHWRA) and the Final Rule for the Public Housing Agency Plans as published in the Federal Register on October 21, 1999.

The Calera Housing Authority has established meaningful goals and measurable objectives to lead us through the next five fiscal years and to promote the long term viability of the Housing Authority and it's assets and resources. Statutory requirements of the QHWRA have been implemented and certain discretionary policies are now in effect.

The Annual Plan programs and activities are consistent with the missions, goals and objectives outlined in the Five Year Plan. The Annual Plan includes a statement related to housing needs, financial resources, policies, rent determinations, capital improvements, demolition and/or disposition, designation of public housing for elderly families or families with disabilities or elderly families and families with disabilities, conversion of public housing, homeownership, safety and crime prevention and civil rights.

The Calera Housing Authority Resident Advisory Board (RAB), residents, other assisted families, the Board of Commissioners, local government officials and representatives of other local public and private sector entities were provided an opportunity to participate in the preparation of the Public Housing Agency Plan.
