Violence Against Women Act

The Rockland Housing Authority (RHA) supports the Violence Against Women Act of 2005 (VAWA) and its Administrative Plan has adopted the following policy:

- Incidents relating to domestic violence, dating violence, or stalking engaged in by a member of a tenant's household or any guest or other person under the tenant's control, will not be cause for termination of assistance, tenancy or occupancy rights if the tenant or an immediate family member of the tenant's family is the victim or threatened victim of that abuse;

- Certification of Violence: Under the Act, the RHA has the right to obtain from the victim, evidence of the domestic violence (such as a HUD- approved certification form, police report, court record or some other corroborating evidence) and that if no appropriate information is provided within 14 days of a written request, then the RHA may choose to evict or terminate assistance;

- Perpetrators of the Violence: The RHA may bifurcate the lease, allowing it to evict, remove or terminate assistance to the perpetrator and allow the qualified program participants to remain on the lease.

- Nothing in this amendment may be construed to limit the authority of the RHA to terminate the tenancy, occupancy or program assistance of a tenant for any violation of a lease not premised on the act or acts of violence, provided that an individual who is the victim of domestic violence is held to the same standard as any other tenant who violates their lease.

- Nothing in this amendment may be construed to limit the authority of the RHA to terminate the tenancy, occupancy or program assistance of a tenant or lawful occupant if the RHA can demonstrate an actual and imminent threat to other tenants, RHA employees or service providers if the tenant is not evicted or terminated from assistance.
