The full PHA plan provides a ready source for interested parties to locate basic PHA policies, rules, and requirements concerning the PHA's operations, programs, and services, and informs HUD, families served by the PHA, and members of the public of the PHA's mission and strategies for serving the needs of low-income and very low-income families. This form allows eligible PHAs to make a streamlined annual Plan submission to HUD consistent with HUD's efforts to provide regulatory relief for certain types of PHAs. Public reporting burden for this information collection is estimated to average 11.7 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. HUD may not collect this information and respondents are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB Control Number.

Kingston Housing Authority

Policy on Protection for Victims of Domestic Violence

The Kingston Housing Authority (PHA) adopts these policies in compliance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Amendments of 2005 as well as inclusion of related changes in the Public Housing Admission and Occupancy Policy.

- The PHA supports the goals of the VAWA Amendments and will comply with its requirements.

- The PHA will continue to administer its housing programs in ways that support and protect residents and applicants who may be victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking.

- The PHA will not take any adverse action against a resident/participant or applicant solely on the basis of her or his being a victim of such criminal activity, including threats of such activity. "Adverse action" in this context includes denial or termination of housing assistance.

- The PHA will not subject a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking to a more demanding standard for lease compliance than other residents.

- The PHA will continue to develop policies and procedures as needed to implement the requirements of VAWA, and to collaborate with other agencies to prevent and respond to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, as those activities may affect applicants for and participants in the PHA's housing programs.

- The PHA's policy is to post notices of VAWA protections publicly for applicants and include them in lease in packets for participants.
