Brownfields 2000 Conference 5th Annual Research Conference

Brownfields 2000 will provide fascinating discussions opportunities for critical networking, and a forum that will help beginners to veterans continue to make the deals that are changing America.

This conference will host a variety of unique co-sponsors that will come together to plan and organize a dynamic, multi-disciplinary program. It will be held October 11-13, 2000, at the Atlantic City Convention Center, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

GET ON THE AGENDA

Initiating at the federal level and implementing at the regional level, brownfields developments continues to gain momentum. The Brownfields 2000 Conference is seeking research based articles from all stakeholders practicing assessment, cleanup, and redevelopment of abandoned, idles, or under used commercial and industrial sites. With the research focus, exchange of information is encouraged. If you have information, well suited to a large eager audience, Brownfields 2000 is the forum for your presentation.

All Abstracts must be submitted by Friday, March 24, 2000. For further information, visit the website at <http://www.brownfields2000.org> or contact Amy Lesko at (412) 261-0710.
