National Brownfield Association Conference

Register and/or exhibit today for the 1st Annual National Brownfields Association's Deal-Flow Conference. It will be held April 25-26, 2000 in Chicago, IL.

What is Deal-flow 2000?

This unique two-day event consists of a detailed market forecast and exhibition of distressed properties ready for transfer. The Brownfield market comprises many different niches and sub-specialties, that it may seem fragmented and confusing. Deal flow 2000 will allow representatives of each area to share their expertise - and provide insight to the market.

The aim is to educate property owners and sellers about the process of transferring distressed properties, so that more transactions can occur.

Property owners will showcase sites ready for transfer. Professionals, integral to the transaction, will be available to work with owners and sellers to promote deal-flow. Prospective purchasers, investors and tenants are encouraged to meet with sellers to discuss the specific details of each site.
