“This directory is dedicated to those Veteran Service Organization members and staff who tirelessly work to honor the obligations of a grateful Nation to our military veterans and their families.”

Andrew Cuomo
Secretary
U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Dear Veterans:

We owe our freedom to the sacrifices of veterans and their families, and for that freedom we are profoundly grateful. We also know that not all battles to improve the human condition are conducted in the amphitheatres of war and that many veterans carry their commitment to their country into the domestic arena as well. Millions of men and women who served in our Armed Forces, many during periods of conflict, continue to serve America as advocates of human development programs, especially programs for their fellow citizens who are disabled, elderly, homeless, or otherwise at risk. President Clinton and I are committed to ensuring that the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is helpful in that effort.

Here at HUD, we understand the need to keep veterans and veterans service organizations informed. For that reason, and in consultation with national veteran service organizations, the HUD Office of Community Planning and Development (CPD) established the Veteran Resource Center (HUDVET) to disseminate information on HUD's community-based programs and services. Although HUDVET has a special focus on homeless veterans, its primary goal is to provide all veterans and their family members with information on HUD resources. It is our hope that veterans, equipped with this knowledge, will become more involved in the community-based planning and decisionmaking process—and make full use of HUD programs and services.

HUDVET also offers information and referrals to other Federal programs that can be used to assist veterans and their families. For example, HUDVET provides information on programs to assist homeless veterans, programs to enhance community and economic development, and programs to increase affordable housing for senior citizens and Americans with disabilities. HUDVET can also provide information on programs to assist runaway youth or persons who have experienced domestic violence.

To further our mission of helping to keep veterans and veteran groups informed, HUDVET offers this comprehensive Directory of Veteran Resources. The directory features a list of HUD programs that can be used to assist veterans. It includes a list of non-Federal training and technical assistance resources, a list of other Federal resources for information, and a State-by-State listing of Federal, State, and local organizations that provide information and/or direct assistance to veterans.

You can find out more about programs to assist veterans by calling HUDVET at (800) 998-9999, TDD (800) 483-2209. Remember, as veterans, your active participation in HUD's programs is important to us. Thank you for all you have done—and continue to do—for America. We hope you find this directory helpful, and we look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Andrew Cuomo
Secretary

INTRODUCTION TO DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

President Bill Clinton and HUD Secretary Andrew Cuomo are committed to resolving the issue of homelessness for all Americans, including military veterans and their families. The HUD Veteran Resource Center (HUDVET) was created for you as a result of a unique partnership between national veteran service organizations and Secretary Cuomo. This directory is designed to increase your knowledge of, as well as participation in, Continuum-of-Care (CoC) services for veterans and other individuals who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless.

The message of this directory is clear. As homeless and veteran advocates, you must become involved in the "Consolidated Planning" process for your community's CoC services to respond to the needs of homeless veterans. This directory lists your Consolidated Plan points of contact. If you have not already done so, call and find out how you can become involved in the planning and delivery of HUD-sponsored services. Remember, your expertise is needed to ensure that your local homeless services address the needs of veterans as well as other members of your community who are at risk of homelessness.

To assist you in this effort we have highlighted the following sections in this directory:

Glossary of HUD Terms

The glossary contains a complete listing and explanation of the most commonly used terms associated with CoC services for the homeless.

Other Federal Resources

This section provides the names and telephone numbers of Federal contacts that offer a range of services to citizens across the country. This section is divided into the following areas: Legislative Branch; Judicial Branch; Executive Branch; Independent Agencies; and Boards, Commissions, and Committees.

National Resources

This section provides the names and telephone numbers of organizations that specialize in veterans service provision, legislative advocacy, public education, and technical assistance.

Non-Federal Training and Technical Assistance Resources

This section provides the names and telephone numbers of training and technical assistance providers that offer a range of housing, community development, and economic development services to State and local governments, nonprofit organizations, and citizens across the country.

State and Community Resources

This section is divided into two parts. The first part provides community resources needed for the development of a comprehensive CoC system of services. The second section lists HUD-funded local resources available to homeless veterans and their families and for the intervention and prevention of homelessness.

Veterans' Introduction to HUD

Veterans and their families have been at the heart of many of the HUD programs—even before HUD became a Federal Department. After World War II, Federal Housing Administration (FHA) mortgage insurance combined with Veteran's Administration mortgage guarantees to help returning veterans achieve the American dream of buying their own homes in record numbers. FHA mortgages and mortgage insurance and the secondary mortgage markets, created through the Federal National Mortgage Association (Fannie Mae) and the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation (Freddie Mac), have helped make home mortgages affordable for veterans and other working families. Since 1965 HUD has coordinated these and many other Federal efforts to improve housing and strengthen communities for all Americans.

Key Programs

Today HUD provides resources that are important to all Americans and their families:

- Supportive Housing for the Elderly (Section 202) advances capital to nonprofit sponsors of rental housing with supportive services.
- HOPE 3 grants provide first-time homeownership opportunities to low-income families and individuals by providing grantees with Federal assistance to acquire and rehabilitate single family properties owned by Federal, State, and local governments and to finance their sale to eligible families at affordable prices.
- Emergency Shelter Grants (ESG) enable local agencies to create a CoC for homeless people including homeless veterans. HUD's Supportive Housing Program (SHP) funds are used to provide housing and services, Shelter Plus Care (S+C) grants provide rental assistance for homeless persons with disabilities, and Single Room Occupancy (SRO) assistance is used to rehabilitate SRO dwellings and provide rental assistance, matched by services from other sources.

INTRODUCTION TO HUD

- The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program provides grants to States, cities, and counties to expand economic opportunities and help provide suitable living environments for low- and moderate-income people.
- HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME) grants help jurisdictions expand the supply of decent and affordable rental and ownership housing for low- and very low income people. HOME funds can be used to provide rental assistance, first-time homebuyer and existing homeowner assistance, and new construction or rehabilitation of housing.
- Section 8 Rental Assistance helps low- and very low-income people, including veterans, afford decent rental housing, while the Section 8 Homeownership Program helps people use that assistance to purchase a home.
- Housing Opportunities for Persons With Aids (HOPWA) addresses the needs of persons living with HIV/AIDS, including emergency housing, shared housing arrangements, apartments, SRO, and shared residences.
- Supportive Housing for Persons with Disabilities (Section 811) provides funding to expand the supply of supportive housing to persons with disabilities through capital advances, project rental assistance, and tenant-based rental assistance.

HUD Planning Processes

To better serve its constituents, CPD has developed a consolidated planning process that increases opportunities for veterans and other citizens to become involved in deciding how HUD program funds and other housing and development resources will be used in their communities. Although communities can tailor the planning process to fit their needs, all must bring citizens together, including low-income and minority persons, representatives of local institutions and community groups, and government officials to develop a Consolidated Plan and set priorities. In this directory, veterans' advocates will find the points of contact for agencies responsible for developing the Consolidated Plan in their State. The Consolidated Plan point of contact for your city or county can be reached by contacting the Community Development Department within each respective agency.

Community Connections Information Center

Community Connections, the information center of CPD, serves Federal, State, and local agencies; nonprofit organizations; public interest groups; and others interested in housing and community development. It provides “one-stop shopping” for community information resources such as copies of program regulations, descriptions of model programs, case studies of affordable housing initiatives, publications on expanding affordable housing opportunities, funding information, and training and conference announcements. Veterans’ advocates may pay particular attention to the monthly HUD Calendar of Housing and Community Development Trainings and Conferences, which presents a comprehensive listing of workshops, seminars, and conferences for housing, community development, and technical assistance providers. Community Connections materials are just a toll-free phone call away.

HUD on the Internet

On the Internet’s World Wide Web, HUD’s home page (<http://www.hud.gov>) provides current information about HUD programs, housing opportunities, Executive Summaries of Consolidated Plans, and connections to a comprehensive list of related resources. The point of contact for your community’s Consolidated Plan is highlighted. In addition, you can access your local HUD office’s site through HUD’s home page.

Community Connections’ home page (<http://www.comcon.org>) also offers recent funding and program announcements, past newsletters, and links to other useful Web sites such as the Empowerment Zones and Enterprise Communities site (<http://www.ezec.gov>).

If you have any suggestions about how we can improve this directory or have other comments, please contact HUDVET at (800) 998-9999, Fax (301) 519-5027, TDD (800) 483-2209, or E-mail hudvet@hud.gov.

GLOSSARY OF HUD TERMS

This glossary contains a complete list and explanation of the most commonly used terms associated with CoC services for the homeless. Many terms relate to HUD programs while other terms are veteran specific. For further information concerning these definitions, please contact the HUD Veteran Resource Center or the HUD office nearest you.

Affordable Housing: Affordable housing is generally defined as housing where the occupant is paying no more than 30 percent of his or her income for gross housing costs, including utilities.

Assisted Household or Person: To specify 1-year goals for assisting households or persons, a household or person is assisted if, during the coming Federal fiscal year, he or she will benefit through one or more programs included in the jurisdiction's Consolidated Plan.

Community and Individual Investment Corporation (CIIC): For-profit corporation capitalized in part by Economic Development Initiative and Section 108 funds, which invests in economic development activities in an identified service area where at least 51 percent of the residents are low- and moderate-income people and which offers residents the opportunity to purchase and own shares in the corporation.

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program: A Federal program created under the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974. This program provides grants funds to local and State governments to be used to develop viable urban communities by providing decent housing with a suitable living environment and expanding economic opportunities to assist low- and moderate-income residents. CDBG replaced several categorical grant programs such as the Model Cities Program, the Urban Renewal Program, and the Housing Rehabilitation Loan and Grant Program.

Community Development Block Grants (Entitlement): In this program HUD directly provides annual CDBGs on a formula basis to entitled communities to carry out a wide range of community development activities directed toward neighborhood revitalization, economic development, and improved community facilities and services.

Community Development Block Grants (Section 108 Loan Guarantee): Section 108 is the loan guarantee provision of the CDBG Program. It offers communities a source of financing for housing rehabilitation, economic development, and large-scale physical development projects.

Community Development Block Grants (Small Cities): In this program HUD directly provides annual CDBG funds on a formula basis to States, who then administer the funding and act as a partner with the Federal Government in distributing funds to carry out a wide range of community development activities directed toward neighborhood revitalization, economic development, and improved community facilities and services.

Community Housing Development Organization (CHDO): A federally defined type of nonprofit housing provider that must receive a minimum of 15 percent of all Federal HOME Investment Partnership funds. The primary difference between CHDO and other nonprofits is the level of low-income resident participation on the Board of Directors.

Community Reinvestment Act (CRA): A 1977 law that requires banks and savings and loan institutions to take affirmative steps to help meet the credit needs of the communities they are chartered to serve, especially low- and moderate-income communities. The Act directs the four banking regulatory agencies (Federal Reserve Board, Officer of the Comptroller of the Currency, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and the Office of Thrift Supervision) to evaluate the extent to which these institutions are meeting local credit needs.

Consolidated Plan: A document written by a State or local government describing the housing needs of the low- and moderate-income residents, outlining strategies to meet the needs and listing all resources available to implement the strategies. This document is required to receive HUD Community Planning and Development funds.

Continuum-of-Care: Policies designed to address the critical problem of homelessness that include a coordinated community-based process of identifying needs and building a system to address those needs. The approach is predicated on the understanding that homelessness is not caused merely by a lack of shelter, but involves a variety of underlying, unmet needs—physical, economic, and social.

Disability Compensation: Monetary benefits, called disability compensation, are paid to veterans who are disabled by injury or disease incurred or aggravated during active duty military service. Monetary benefits are related to the residual effects of the injury or disease. The benefits, which are not subject to Federal or State income tax, are set by Congress.

Economic Development Initiative (EDI): The EDI provides communities with grants that can be used in tandem with Section 108 guaranteed loans. This program provides communities with a source of financing for economic development, housing rehabilitation, and large-scale physical development projects.

Emergency Shelter Grant (ESG) Program: A Federal grant program designed to help improve the quality of existing emergency shelters for the homeless, to make available additional shelters, to meet the costs of operating shelters, to provide essential social services to homeless individuals, and to help prevent homelessness.

Empowerment Zone (EZ) / Enterprise Community (EC): Federally designated cities that receive funding by combining efforts to create economic opportunity, sustainable community development, community-based partnerships, and a strategic vision for change.

Federal Housing Administration (FHA) Mortgage Insurance Programs: FHA administers a variety of single-family mortgage insurance programs designed to make homeownership more readily available. These programs operate through HUD-approved lending institutions such as banks, savings and loan associations, and mortgage companies.

Home Investment Partnerships Program (HOME): A Federal grant program designed to help jurisdictions expand the supply of decent and affordable rental and ownership housing for low- and very low income veterans.

Homeless Veteran: Any man or woman who served in the military forces and does not have a permanent residence or is in immediate danger of losing his or her home.

Homeownership of Single-Family Homes (HOPE 3): HUD, through the HOPE 3 program, provides grants to eligible applicants to create homeownership opportunities for low-income families who are first-time homebuyers.

Housing Opportunities for Persons With AIDS (HOPWA): The HOPWA program provides housing assistance and supportive services for low-income persons with HIV/AIDS and their families. Grants are provided by selection through a national competition of projects proposed by State and local governments and nonprofit organizations. Grantees are encouraged to form community partnerships with area nonprofit organizations to provide housing assistance and supportive services for eligible persons.

Low Income: A household whose income does not exceed 80 percent of the median income for the area, as determined by HUD, with adjustments for smaller or larger families. HUD may establish income ceilings higher or lower than 80 percent of the area median on the basis of HUD's findings that such variations are necessary because of prevailing levels of construction costs, fair market rents, or unusually high or low family incomes.

Lower Income Rental Assistance (Section 8 Certificates and Vouchers): HUD assists low- and very low income families in obtaining decent, safe, and sanitary housing in private accommodations by making up the difference between what they can afford and the approved rent for an adequate housing unit.

Moderate Income: Households whose incomes are between 81 percent and 95 percent of the median income for the area, as determined by HUD, with adjustments for smaller or larger families. HUD may establish income ceilings higher or lower than 95 percent of the median for the area on the basis of HUD's findings that such variations are necessary because of prevailing levels of construction costs, fair market rents, or unusually high or low family incomes.

Section 8 Homeownership Program: Allows low-income families who qualify for Section 8 rental assistance to use their certificates or vouchers to pay for homeownership costs under a mortgage.

Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Single Room Occupancy (SRO) Program: The SRO program provides rental assistance to homeless individuals in connection with the moderate rehabilitation of SRO dwellings. Resources to fund the cost of rehabilitating the dwellings must be from other sources. However, the rental assistance covers operating expenses of the SRO housing, including debt service for rehabilitation financing, provided that the monthly rental assistance or unit does not exceed the moderate rehabilitation fair market rent for an SRO unit, as established by HUD.

Shelter Plus Care (S+C) Program: Provides grants for rental assistance for homeless persons with disabilities through four component programs: Tenant, Sponsor, Project, and Single Room Occupancy (SRO) Rental Assistance.

Single Room Occupancy (SRO): Provides rental assistance on behalf of homeless individuals in connection with moderate rehabilitation of SRO dwellings.

Supportive Housing: Housing, including housing units and group quarters, that has a supportive environment and includes a planned service component.

Supportive Housing for the Elderly (Section 202): HUD provides capital advances to eligible, private, nonprofit sponsors to finance the development of rental housing with supportive services for the elderly.

Supportive Housing Program (SHP): SHP promotes the development of supportive housing and supportive services, including innovative approaches that assist homeless persons in the transition from homelessness and enable them to live as independently as possible. SHP funds may be used to provide transitional housing, permanent housing for persons with disabilities, innovative supportive housing, supportive services, or safe havens for the homeless.

Supportive Services: Services provided to residents of supportive housing for the purpose of facilitating the independence of residents. Examples include case management, medical or psychological counseling and supervision, child care, transportation, and job training.

Surplus Property Program to Assist the Homeless (Title V): Homeless organizations pay operating and repair costs on the surplus properties that are leased rent-free and “as is.” Leases may run from 1 to 20 years, depending on the availability of the property and other factors. Surplus properties may also be deeded to the organizations. The program provides no funding. For the name and contact at these agencies, call your nearest HUD field office or the HUD toll-free number: (800) 927-7588.

Tenant-Based (Rental) Assistance: HUD assists low- and very low income families in obtaining decent, safe, and sanitary housing in private accommodations by making up the difference between what they can afford and the approved rent for an adequate housing unit.

VA Medical Center: Federally owned and operated hospital that provides health care to veterans.

Veteran: Anyone who served or is serving in the military forces.

Very Low Income: Households whose incomes do not exceed 50 percent of the median area income for the area, as determined by HUD, with adjustments for smaller and larger families and for areas with unusually high or low incomes or where needed because of prevailing levels of construction costs or fair market rents.

Veteran Service Organizations Service Officers: Individuals recognized by veteran service organizations who are qualified to file claims for veterans to the Department of Veteran Affairs for benefits such as compensation, pension, and medical treatment.

Vocational Rehabilitation Program: Veterans and service members are eligible for vocational rehabilitation if certain conditions are met (please consult with the Department of Veterans Affairs or a Veteran Service Organization service officer). An eligible disabled veteran may receive employment assistance, self-employment assistance, or training in a rehabilitation facility, college, or other training facility.

Veterans Organizations Homeless Council

PURPOSE

National Veteran Service Organizations formed the Veterans Organizations Homeless Council (VOHC) to provide national leadership and to assist with the creation of legislative initiatives in support of homeless veterans and their families. The VOHC is committed to ending homelessness among the veteran population. VOHC membership is restricted to Veteran Service Organizations with Congressional charters.

MISSION STATEMENT

The National Veterans Service Organizations herein join together to create a partnership to end homelessness among veterans. The Veterans Organizations Homeless Council (VOHC) is formed to provide national leadership focusing on the problems of homeless veterans and their families. The VOHC will develop a community-based model to access resources for providing a full continuum of services to address the needs of homeless veterans and their families. It will establish a joint legislative initiative in support of homeless veterans and their families. Through this process the VOHC will develop comprehensive, self-help programs that are not limited to employment and training, housing, supportive counseling services, and preventing homelessness. Its efforts will coordinate partnerships among Federal, State, local, and private sector programs.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The VOHC's Executive Committee consists of:

The American Legion

AMVETS

Blinded Veterans Association

Disabled American Veterans

Jewish War Veterans of the USA

Military Order of The Purple Heart of the USA

Non Commissioned Officers Association of the USA

Paralyzed Veterans of America

Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States

Vietnam Veterans of America

STATE AND COMMUNITY RESOURCES

INTRODUCTION

The HUDVET Directory's State and Community Resources Section was designed to assist the planning and delivery of community-based Continuum-of-Care services for veterans who are homeless. As a result, this section is divided into two parts: Resources and Services and Community Planning and Development.

Resources and Services includes four categories of services available at the community level to address the readjustment and/or reintegration needs of homeless veterans: Federal, State, Veteran Service Organizations, and Other. When working together, these resources form the foundation of a comprehensive and coordinated Continuum-of-Care program for veterans.

Community Planning and Development references the State Consolidated Plan, Entitlement Community, and other HUD grantee points of contact. Successful assessment and planning for Continuum-of-Care services for veterans require the veteran advocate's knowledge, utilization, and leadership in the structure, mission, and purpose of these groups.
