

FAQs Regarding the FY2011 Budget Cuts Impacting Housing Counseling Grants

HUD has received many phone calls regarding the impact of the full year Continuing Resolution that was enacted last week on HUD's Housing Counseling Program. We understand that the budget cuts to the program will be painful for many HUD-approved housing counseling agencies and the communities you serve. The Department hopes to provide new housing counseling funding through the FY 2012 budget that will soon begin to be developed with Congress.

Please see the attached frequently asked questions (FAQs) document that addresses the questions the Department has received to date on this important issue.

Ruth Román
Director, Program Support Division
Office of Single Family Housing