

HUD's Healthy Homes Initiative Grantees

HUD Healthy Homes Initiative (HHI) Grants Reduce Health and Safety Risks to Children in Low-Income Housing

The HHI Grant Awards

HUD's Healthy Homes Initiative (HHI) was established by Congress in 1999 to "develop and implement a program of research and demonstration projects that would address multiple housing-related problems affecting the health of children." HUD awards grants to investigate the intersection of housing and health and to develop effective hazard interventions.

FY 2002

HUD awarded $5.9 million in 9 Demonstration grants; and $1.6 million in 3 research grants.

FY 2001

HUD awarded $5.8 million in 8 Demonstration and Education grants; and $2.2 million in 6 research grants.

FY 2000

HUD awarded $5.2 million in 6 Demonstration and Education grants; and $2.4 million in 2 Research grants.

FY 1999

HUD awarded $ 4.0 million in 2 Mold and Moisture grants; $4.2 million in 4 Demonstration grants; and $243,000 in 1 Research grant.
