

Healthy Homes Grantees in Region III, Mid-Atlantic

Name of Grantee: Coalition to End Childhood Lead Poisoning

Name of Project:

Amount Awarded: $ 872,032

Year of Grant: 2002

Contact Info:

Ruth Ann Norton, (215) 342-7188

Project Partners: Baltimore City Healthy Start, the Baltimore City Health Department, Clearing House for Healthy Communities, Harlem Park/Lafayette Square Village Center, the Enterprise Foundation, the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, New Song Urban Ministries, the NAACP, the Wald Clinic, the American Red Cross, Casey Family Services and Success by 6

Summary of Project Activities:

The Coalition to End Childhood Lead Poisoning is collaborating with Baltimore City Healthy Start, the Baltimore City Health Department, Clearing House for Healthy Communities, Harlem Park/Lafayette Square Village Center, the Enterprise Foundation, the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing, New Song Urban Ministries, the NAACP, the Wald Clinic, the American Red Cross, Casey Family Services and Success by 6 to provide assessment, education, and interventions in 200 homes occupied by pregnant women and young children. The goal of the project is to address housing-related health and safety hazards prior to the birth of a new child in the communities of Sandtown-Winchester/Harlem Park and Historic East Baltimore South.

Product Outcomes/Outputs:

The goal of the project is to address housing-related health and safety hazards prior to the birth of a new child in the communities.