ATHENS HOUSING AUTHORITY DECONCENTRATION POLICY

It is the Athens Housing Authority's policy to provide for deconcentration of poverty and encourage income mixing by bringing higher income families into lower income developments and lower income families into higher income developments. Toward this end, we will skip families on the waiting list to reach other families with a lower or higher income. The Athens Housing Authority (AHA) will accomplish this in a uniform and non-discriminating manner.

The Athens Housing Authority will affirmatively market its housing to all eligible income groups. Lower income residents will not be steered toward lower income developments and higher income people will not be steered toward higher income developments.

Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year, the AHA will analyze the income levels of families residing in each of its developments, the income levels of census tracts in which AHA developments are located, and the income levels of the families on the waiting list. Based on this analysis, the Authority will determine the level of marketing strategies and deconcentration incentives to implement.

In the space below, summarize the PHDEP strategy to address the needs of the target population/target area(s). Your summary should briefly identify: the broad goals and objectives, the role of plan partners, and your system or process for monitoring and evaluating PHDEP-funded activities. The Athens Tutorial Program, Youth Leadership Awards Program, Resident Activities GED program and the Computer Learning Center/New Connections to Work provide the scholastic assistance and skills training vital to employability. The Community Assistance Program provides on-site drug education/prevention and intervention/treatments services for all residents. Finally, enhancement of current law enforcement services will provide additional surveillance equipment to help ensure the evidence necessary for conviction.

RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD / PUBLIC COMMENTS

The Housing Authority of the City of Athens, Georgia has met--and exceeded--the requirements for resident participation in the Agency Plan.

The Inter-Community Council of the Athens Housing Authority, comprised of officers of the Resident Associations of each of the AHA's eleven developments, served as the Resident Advisory Board for the Agency Plan. As a result, the Advisory Board was a true representation of all customers served by the Authority.

This Advisory Board actively participated in the actual development of the Agency Plan. The Board met with the AHA planning team on at least five occasions from October 4, 1999 through February 16, 2000. Minutes of these meetings are on file at the administrative offices of the Athens Housing Authority. In addition, a special presentation of the Agency Plan was held on February 16, 2000, immediately prior to the official public comment period, offering all Resident Association Officers the opportunity to review the final draft.

Copies of the Agency Plan were then made available for resident and public review in the following locations:

Administrative Offices of the Athens Housing Authority
Resident Services Office of the Athens Housing Authority
East Athens Development Center
Jack R. Wells Boys and Girls Club
Athens Regional Library

The above locations were strategically selected throughout the city of Athens to provide convenient access for review.

Public Hearing announcements were published on two separate occasions in the Athens newspapers. In addition, announcements were published in resident newsletters, which are mailed to all AHA customers. The Public Hearing was held on April 3, 2000 at the Athens Regional Library. Only AHA Board members and Staff were in attendance.

The Athens Housing Authority received no resident and/or public comments regarding the Agency Plan.
