- c. The income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, including loss of employment;

If a resident request a hardship exemption and the Authority can reasonably determine the hardship to be of a temporary nature, an exemption shall not be granted during the 90-day period beginning upon the making of a request for the exemption. A resident shall not be evicted during the 90-day period for non-payment of rent. In such a case, if the resident thereafter demonstrates that the financial hardship is of a long-term basis, the Authority shall retroactively exempt the resident from applicability of the minimum rent requirement for such 90-day period.

Rent Reductions Relative to Public Assistance Benefits Reductions

In the event a family's public assistance benefits are reduced due to non-compliance with program requirements or fraud, the Authority may not reduce the family's rent. The Authority will not refuse to decrease a family's rental contribution due to a reduction in public assistance benefits until it receives official, written notification from the welfare agency indicating that the reduction of benefits resulted from non-compliance. The Authority must consider the reduction in income in determining the family's rent if a family's benefits are otherwise reduced.
