Resident Advisory Board Comments on Agency Plan

Concern: Would a family member that had gone through rehabilitation for domestic violence would be returned to housing? Would appropriate police records be maintained in their file?

Response: The HA would investigate thoroughly before allowing an abusive person in housing including criminal background check.

Question: How is the HA going about improving the public's perception of the Section 8 Program?

Response: The HA is working more closely with Section 8 landlords to help them screen applicants and conduct reference checks. Also the HA has requested of HUD the ability to expand the Section 8 Program county wide.

Question: How is the HA going to meet its goal of 97% occupancy?

Response: The HA is increasing its marketing efforts including newspaper, radio and newly developed brochure being placed in office and business waiting areas around the city as well as offices of related social service agencies.

Question: What is the definition of "family"?

Response: This was explained.

Concern: concerned about pets being allowed in the HA.

Response: It was explained that it was mandatory that pets be allowed in housing with certain restrictions and that this was part of QHWRA.

Question: What about over income applicants?

Response: It was explained that over income applicants are welcome and could pay the maximum rent regardless of how high their income was.

Question: What is the rationale for items being placed on the five-year action plan of capital improvements for CPG?

Response: It was explained that input for these items came from a professional architect's study of the properties, our own staff, residents through the annual meeting with the Tenant Organization Officers, persons attending the public meeting and now the Assessment done by HUD on the annual real estate inspection.

Question: How can a Section 8 tenants get repairs made by her landlord?

Response: It was suggested that a landlord usually was glad to make needed repairs for a tenant that paid their rent on time and treated the property correctly. If repairs are not being made, it was suggested that she report these to the HA and they would intercede.

Policy on De-concentration

It is the policy of the Sullivan Housing Authority that families be housed in a manner that will prevent a concentration of poverty families and/or a concentration of higher income families in any one development.

This is accomplished by offering new tenants their choice of any one of the available units in all developments as appropriate for their family size.
