RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD MEETING
SEPTEMBER 18, 2000

2000 Agency Plan Comments

Page 18 – Eligibility

- What is the extent of screening required by law?
- There should be more screening for safety purposes of families.
- Define how many strikes and you are out.
- HRA should consider a person with drug-related or criminal activity history eligible if they are now clean, for example has gone through rehab.
- The problem with self-declaration of criminal or drug-related activity is that most criminals will lie when answering the questions.
- Landlords ultimately do the screening anyway, why should the HRA.

- Suggest putting the maximum amount of search time allowed in the application so all applicants know this from the start of the Section 8 process.
- Tenant education regarding HRA rules is important and would make tenants more accountable.
- In regard to requests for reasonable accommodations– are people told of the ability to request an extended search period for this and under what circumstances can it be applied?

Page 19 – Admissions Preferences

- Reinstate the federal preferences, some or all:

Homeless

Involuntary displacement

Working families

Unable to work

High rent burden

- Rank first on the waiting list those families with three or more needs

Page 25 – Payment Standards

- Metro HRA standards appear more than fair in comparison to information provided in recent newspaper articles regarding rents in the Metro area.

- Increase housing options for families:

Deconcentration

Ceiling rents

Reasonable accommodation

Page 26 – Operations and Management

- Clarification of 15% turnover stated in the 2000 plan

Page 35 – Homeownership Program

- Consensus of the group in wanting to see the implementation of a homeownership program.
- How to implement for the single disabled individuals or families with fixed income .

Miscellaneous comments/questions

- Change the rule regarding landlords being able to terminate lease at the end of term without cause – this causes a great hardship on families with children, when they have to move.
- Application fees are a rip-off
- Security deposit should be changed back to 30% of income.
- Landlords discriminate based on race, income.
- Deconcentration- what does this mean?
- Need for landlord education and tenant advocacy.
- Implement guidelines to serve U.S. citizens prior to non-citizens.
- Remove the 40% cap to allow families more housing choices.
- Provide education on the availability of the Family SelfSufficiency Program.
- Too many self-sufficiency programs among agencies; they should be coordinated.
