5-YEAR PLAN
PHA FISCAL YEARS 2000 - 2004

[24 CFR Part 903.5]

A. Mission

State the PHA's mission for serving the needs of low-income, very low income, and extremely low-income families in the PHA's jurisdiction. (select one of the choices below)

- The mission of the PHA is the same as that of the Department of Housing and Urban Development: To promote adequate and affordable housing, economic opportunity and a suitable living environment free from discrimination.

And

- The PHA's mission is: The New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) works to maximize the production of affordable housing in New York City by encouraging cost-effective development. The Department also promotes the preservation and improvement of the existing housing stock by providing loan assistance, education, and code enforcement. In conjunction with these housing objectives, the Department supports a comprehensive community development agenda by conveying City-owned properties, both occupied and vacant, to responsible private owners, while promoting retail development, homeownership initiatives, and productive community partnerships. In all of its efforts, the Department seeks to operate in an effective and judicious manner, providing a range of high quality and easily accessible services to landlords, tenants and homeowners throughout the City.

As indicated in response to i. Annual Plan Type on page 1 of the FY 2000 Annual Plan, HPD does not own or operate any public housing units and thus its role as a public housing agency (PHA) is limited to the administration of its Section 8 programs. However, HPD is unusual among local PHAs in that it is also a municipal housing agency operating a wide range of housing and community development programs funded through a variety of local, State and Federal sources.

HPD's initiatives include housing rehabilitation, new construction, economic development, real estate tax incentive, fair housing/equal opportunity, property management and code enforcement efforts. While the following Plan is necessarily focused on HPD's role as a PHA, and consequently the operation of its Section 8 program, it also includes some information on the Agency's larger goals and its other programs. A more complete discussion of HPD's objectives and activities can be found in the New York City Consolidated Plan.

Note: Those sections of the Plan related only to public housing have been deleted.

ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998 makes significant and numerous changes in the administration of the Section 8 Program. Under Section 5A of the Housing Act of 1937, public housing agencies are required to set forth their policies, plans and objectives as well as their long-term goals in the form of an Annual and Five Year Plan, respectively.

In FY 2000, HPD intends to use its Section 8 funds to accomplish the following:

- To assist homeless and near homeless families in securing suitable, affordable and permanent housing.*
- To provide assisted families and individuals with supportive services to prevent homelessness*
- To develop homeownership opportunities for Section 8 recipients*
- To continue efforts to assist families achieve economic independence through the Family Self-Sufficiency Program*

- *To prevent the economic displacement of very low-income families living in governmentally sponsored development projects through the provision of rental assistance subsidies to these occupants.
In addition, the Agency will also be pursuing a range of other goals through its other programs, including the following:*
- To create greater housing opportunities for low-income families by preserving privately-owned housing and preventing abandonment through a variety of strategies, including: assessing physical and financial needs of distressed properties, outreach to owners to encourage code and tax compliance, referral to a variety of educational opportunities and loan programs to facilitate owner investment in their properties.
- Promote the development of new homeownership opportunities through the sale of vacant City-owned property and a range of new construction initiatives
- To combine concentrated housing and development preservation activity with intensified law enforcement efforts in targeted neighborhoods. This initiative is expected to reduce crime and promote long-term community safety, stability and renewal in neighborhoods that were previously beset by illegal drug activities.
- To continue to return occupied City-owned property to private ownership by transferring buildings into alternative management programs and encouraging local entrepreneurs, not-for-profit community groups and tenants to participate in community development through an array of HPD programs.
