ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

The Town of Penfield, along with the Monroe County Department of Planning and Development and the Town's administrative agent - the Rochester Housing Authority, has prepared this Agency Plan in compliance with Section 511 of the 1998 Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act and subsequent HUD requirements. The Town of Penfield administers only tenant-based rental assistance through the Section 8 program and, therefore, pursuant to 24CFR903.11, is submitting a streamlined Plan. This document is the product of extensive work on the part of Town staff, staff of the Rochester Housing Authority, who has been the Town's administrative agent since 1977, and staff from Monroe County's Department of Planning and Development. The Plan includes input from Section 8 participants and Town and County officials. A draft copy of the Plan was made available for public comment for 45 days and the Town Board held a public hearing on the Plan. The Town's/County's mission is to actively and affirmatively promote the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program as a critical part of the Town's overall strategy of improving the quality of life for Town residents. Perhaps the most significant initiative coming out of this process of developing the Agency Plan is the Town's agreement to eliminate its residency preference in the selection of applicants.

In accordance with the 2000-2005 Consolidated Plan for Suburban Monroe County and the Towns of Greece and Irondequoit, three of the five affordable housing priorities described under the Housing Strategic Plan section of the Consolidated Plan, support the PHA Plan as listed below:

1. development of additional rental units for low, very low and extremely low-income elderly, handicapped/disabled (with supportive services) and family households;
2. continued coordinated planning efforts to secure and distribute Section 8 Vouchers and Project-Based Assistance in suburban Monroe County;
3. assist homeless persons, in accordance with the Homeless Continuum of Care Plan, to secure housing (emergency, transitional and permanent) and supportive services necessary to achieve independent living.

In addition, the housing needs (of families, elderly households and persons with disabilities) as described in the Consolidated Plan are consistent with the housing needs and ranking data described in the PHA Agency Plan.

In accordance with the 2000-2005 Consolidated Plan for Suburban Monroe County and the Towns of Greece and Irondequoit, two of four funding program categories described under the HOME Program Description section of the Consolidated Plan support the PHA Plan. These two program categories include the Rental Housing Production Program and the Community Housing Development Organizations (CHDO) Rental Project Program. These two programs were established to provide financing to facilitate the development of rental units for low, very low and extremely low-income tenants.

Finally, the Fair Housing Initiatives and Community Choice Action Plan section of the 2000-2005 Consolidated Plan supports the PHA Plan through two of the eighty-one strategies identified in the April 1998 Community Choice Action Plan - Phase 1, which specifically recommended the participation of the Rochester Housing Authority in suburban Monroe County housing opportunities. These strategies deal with various approaches to increasing the supply of affordable rental housing in suburban Monroe County, such as , RHA ownership and/or management of suburban units, RHA using project-based Vouchers and its bonding capacity to leverage affordable rental housing development throughout the County.

RESIDENT AND PUBLIC COMMENTS

The Town of Penfield /Monroe County Community Development Consortium has engaged in the following activities to solicit comments from participants in the Section S Program and the public in general.

- * On April 14, 2000, the Town/consortium published an ad in the Rochester Business Journal - the County's official newspaper -announcing a 45-day public comment period on it Agency Plan. A copy of the ad is included in this Plan as Appendix VI.
- * On April 21, 2000, draft copies at the Agency Plan were mailed to members of the Resident Advisory Board for review.
- * On May 26, 2000, a meeting of the Resident Advisory Board was held. Present at the meeting were representatives from Monroe County, the Rochester Housing Authority and one member of the Resident Advisory Board. One of the members was unable to attend the meeting. She subsequently forwarded her comments in writing on 5/29/00. We received the following comments/suggestions and have responded or will be responding to them in the following manner:

Comment:

The member of the Resident Advisory Board who attended the meeting expressed the opinion that the program was being administered extremely well and equitably He stated that he could not think of any way to improve the program.

Response:

The County/RHA thanked the member, but stated their belief that there were always ways to improve the program.

Comment:

The member who submitted her comments in writing expressed concern over the length of the waiting list, which results in families being forced to live in sub-standard housing.

Response:

RHA recently submitted an application for an additional 85 Vouchers. Additionally, the Town/Consortium is now administering 294 'Preservation' Vouchers in conjunction with a mortgage pre-payment at a Section 236 project in the Town of Penfield. It is anticipated that not all of these Vouchers will end up being used by residents of the 236 project and will, therefore, be available to families on the Section 8 waiting list.

Comment:

The same member also addressed the problem of housing affordability for families on the waiting list. Because of the length of time on the list, families - many of whom are single-parent families - cannot afford some of the basic necessities, such as food and utilities.

Response:

Again, if the application for 85 additional Vouchers is approved these, along with the unused 'Preservation' Vouchers, will enable the Town to reach many more families on the waiting list.

Comment

The same member expressed concern over the need for more low income housing, especially for elderly and disabled families.

Response:

As indicated in Appendix IV of the Agency Plan, Monroe County has partnered in the funding for a substantial number of affordable housing developments in suburban Monroe County. Additionally, the Rochester Rousing Authority has used its resources In the Project Based Certificate program to develop 64 units of affordable housing In suburban Monroe County.

Comment:

The same member commented on her goal of striving to purchase a home.

Response:

The Town/RHA is awaiting publication of HUD's final rule on the Home ownership Option, at which time, it is RHA's intention to implement the program, at least initially, on a small scale, beginning first with RHA's own (five-county) program and limiting eligibility to families enrolled in the Family Self Sufficiency Program. Based upon these early experiences, the Town/RHA expect to have a model for the Town program by 12/31/00

Comment

The same member spoke of the "hard guidelines" for Section 8, but expressed agreement with these guidelines as a deterrent to program abuse.

Response:

The Town/RHA has always taken an aggressive approach in identifying and eliminating program abuse.

Comment:

The same member expressed the need to get more Towns involved In the Section 8 program.

Response:

The Town/consortium and RHA are always attempting to increase participation in suburban Monroe County. Even though, at present, eighteen of the nineteen Towns in Monroe County are represented in the Section 8 program, there is a continual need to attract new owners to the program (see objective #3 in the five-year Plan)

- * On 6/21/00, the Penfield Town Board held a public hearing on its Agency Plan. Representatives from the Monroe County and RHA gave a brief presentation on the requirements of the Agency Plan. Supervisor Channing Philbrick then opened the hearing for public comments. There were no comments.
- * On 6/29/00, the town received a letter from Reverend Linda K. Dolby, Chairperson of the Fair Housing Coalition for a Community of Monroe. The letter was accompanied by a five-page statement on behalf of the Coalition. It is to be noted that this letter was received twenty-nine days after the end of the 45~day comment period. Copies of this letter and statement are included in this Agency Plan as Appendix VII.

Response:

The Town/County disagrees with some of the Coalition's assertions. The Town/County agree that residency preferences in the Section 8 programs were identified in the 1995 Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing Choice. The Coalition's statement asserts that subsidies that were provided (by HUD) under the contract come from an allocation calculated by HUD to serve the greater Rochester area. In fact, the last time that the Town of Penfield was awarded any tenant-based subsidies was 1982. At that time, applications for Certificates were reviewed in the light of housing affordability needs of the PHA's jurisdiction, as identified in various County planning documents, such as, the Comprehensive Housing Affordability Strategy and the Consolidated Plan. Even today, HUD is currently ranking applications for 'Fair Share' vouchers, using 'housing needs' as the most heavily- weighted criterion. HUD defines housing needs as the number of households in the PHA jurisdiction (i.e., Monroe County, exclusive of the City of Rochester and the Towns of Greece and Irondequoit) paying more than half of their income for shelter, as a percentage of the total number of these households in the state. HUD does not look at the greater Rochester area when scoring this criterion.

However, the Town/County agrees to amend its Section B Administrative Plan {Section 111(B) and III(C) to eliminate the residency preference, under the following conditions:

1. Those applicants on the section 8 waiting list, categorized as residents, as of the date of adoption of the Agency Plan, will retain this preference.
2. Subject to the Income Targeting requirements of the 1998 Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act, these applicants (currently 18) will be canvassed before non-resident applicants.
3. During the time that it takes to canvass these applicants, the waiting list will remain closed. There will be no new names added to the resident list, including any non-resident who wants his/her name placed on the resident list because of either having moved into or found employment in the jurisdiction.
4. When all of these resident applicants have been canvassed, the Town/County will eliminate the residency preference.

The Town of Penfield affords participant families the opportunity for an informal hearing to consider whether certain HA decisions relating to the individual circumstances of the family are in accordance with the applicable statutes, regulations and policies in the Section 8 Administrative Plan.

Requests for informal hearings are handled in one of two ways. If the family disputes a HA decision pursuant to 24CFR982.555(a)(1)(i) ,(ii) or (iii) , the family is provided with a written explanation of the decision and offered the opportunity to request an informal hearing. In these cases, the hearing is conducted by a Manager The family is instructed that they must attend in person and present any and all documentation and /or witnesses at this time.

The hearing must be requested in writing The Rochester Housing. Authority - the Town of Penfield's Section 8 Administrative Agent - has a contract with an independent hearing officer. This hearing officer schedules and conducts the hearing and notifies the family of its right to present evidence and witnesses at the hearing. They are further notified that they have the right to bring an attorney to the hearing (mention is made in this notice of the Monroe County Legal Assistance Corporation which provides free legal services for eligible, low income families) and, finally, that they and/or their attorney have the right to examine RHA'S file prior to the hearing. Both parties are notified by the hearing officer that any documents intended for presentation at the hearing must be made available to the other Party no sooner than 72 hours before the hearing.

The hearings are conducted in accordance with 24Cnr982.55s(e). Both the HA and the family are notified of the hearing officer's decision within ten business days of the hearing..
