ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

The Town of Irondequoit has prepared this Agency Plan in compliance with Section 511 of the 1998 Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act and subsequent HUD requirements. The Town of Irondequoit administers only tenant-based rental assistance through the Section 8 program and, therefore, pursuant to 24CFR903.11, is submitting a streamlined Plan. This document is the product of extensive work on the part of Town staff and staff of the Rochester Housing Authority, who has been the Town's administrative agent since 1977. The Plan includes input from Section 8 participants and Town officials. A draft copy of the Plan was made available for public comment for 45 days and the Town Board held a public hearing on the Plan. The Town's mission is to actively and affirmatively promote the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program as a critical part of the Town's overall strategy of improving the quality of life for Town residents. Perhaps the most significant initiative coming out of this process of developing the Agency Plan is the Town's agreement to eliminate its residency preference in the selection of applicants.

In accordance with the 2000-2005 Consolidated Plan for Suburban Monroe County and the Towns of Greece and Irondequoit, three of the five affordable housing priorities described under the Housing Strategic Plan section of the Consolidated plan, support the PHA Plan as listed below:

1. development of additional rental units for low, very low and extremely low-income elderly, handicapped/disabled (with supportive services) and family households;
2. continued coordinated planning efforts to secure and distribute Section 8 Vouchers and Project Based Assistance in suburban Monroe County;
3. assist homeless persons, in accordance with the Homeless Continuum of Care Plan to secure housing (emergency, transitional and permanent) and supportive services necessary to achieve independent living.

In addition, the housing needs (of families, elderly households and persons with disabilities) as described in the Consolidated Plan are consistent with the housing needs and ranking data described in the PHA Agency Plan.

In accordance with the 2000-2005 Consolidated Plan for Suburban Monroe County and the Towns of Greece and Irondequoit, two of four funding program categories, described under the HOME Program Description section of the Consolidated Plan support the PHA Plan. These two program categories include the Rental Housing Production Program and the Community Housing Development Organizations (CHDO) Rental Project Program. These two programs were established to provide financing to facilitate the development of rental units for low, very low and extremely low-income tenants.

Finally, the Fair Housing Initiatives and Community Choice Action Plan section of the 2000-2005 Consolidated Plan supports the PHA Plan through two of the eighty-one strategies identified in the April 1998 Community Choice Action Plan - Phase I - which, specifically recommend the participation of the Rochester Housing Authority in suburban Monroe County housing opportunities. These strategies deal with various approaches to increasing the supply of affordable rental housing in suburban Monroe County, such as, RHA ownership and/or management of suburban units, RHA using project-based Vouchers and its bonding capacity to leverage affordable rental housing development throughout the County.

RESIDENT AND PUBLIC COMMENTS

The Town of Irondequoit has engaged in the following activities to solicit comments from participants in the Section 8 program and the public in general:

- * On 4/20/00, the Town published an ad in the Irondequoit Post -the Town's official newspaper - announcing a 45-day public comment period on its Agency plan (see Appendix IV).
- * On 4/21/00, draft copies of the Agency Plan were mailed to members of the Resident Advisory Board for review.
- * On 5/24/00, the Resident Advisory Board met. We received the following comments / suggestions and have responded or will be responding to them as follows:

Comment:

Both members of the Resident Advisory Board have participated in the program for approximately ten years. Both commented favorably on the Section 8 program and were complimentary about the work of their Housing Specialist (i.e., caseworker).

Response:

The Town and RHA thanked the members.

Comment:

One member commented on the difficulty she experienced in locating a unit in the Town during her original search. She felt that many owners were unfamiliar with the program and that it was difficult for her to sell them on the program's benefits. She suggested more outreach in the landlord community via brochures/flyers would serve to educate the owners and make it easier for tenants to find units.

Response:

The Town/RHA agreed that, historically, it has been difficult to convince many owners to participate. It was noted, for example, that the member's current landlord has refused to participate in the Section 8 program since the program began and had only become a participant by way of purchasing a complex with existing Section 8 tenants. Unfortunately, the owner will not accept new Section 8 tenants at the complex. Nevertheless, the Town/RHA acknowledges the on-going need to educate and familiarize the owner community and will be preparing an updated brochure for distribution throughout the Town.

Comment:

One member commented that the Section 8 Home ownership option would be a great opportunity for certain families and asked about the Town's timetable for implementing this option.

Response:

The Town/RHA is awaiting publication of HUD's Final Rule for the Homeownership Option. RHA intends to, then, implement the program, at least initially, on a small-scale basis, beginning first with RHA's own (five-county) program and limiting eligibility to FSS enrollees. Based upon these early experiences, we expect to develop a model for Irondequoit by 12/31/00.

Comment;

One member, commenting on Appendix I, Part C(2)(c) of the Agency Plan, stated that, quite often, it is difficult for the head-of-household to know the length of time before a family member will be allowed to return to the household and asked whether the absence of the proper number of bedrooms would impede the member returning.

Response:

The Town/RHA believes in the most equitable distribution of scarce subsidy dollars. If an outside agency indicates that a family member is likely to return to the household in six months, provided there is adequate room, this will be taken into account when determining the family's Voucher size.

- * On 6/13/00, Irondequoit's Town Board held a public hearing on the Agency Plan. Representatives from the Town and RHA gave a brief presentation on the requirements of the Plan. Supervisor David Schantz opened the hearing for public comments. There were no comments.
- * On 6/13/00. The Town received a six-page facsimile from Reverend Linda K. Dolby, Chairperson of the Fair Housing Coalition for a Community of Monroe. The letter was accompanied by a five-page statement on behalf of the Coalition. A copy of this transmission is included in this Agency Plan as Appendix V. It is to be noted that this transmission was received eight days after the end of the 45-day comment period.

Response:

The Town of Irondequoit disagrees with some of the Coalition's assertions. The Town agrees that residency preferences were identified in the 1995 Analysis of Impediments to Fair Housing Choice. The Coalition's statement asserts that subsidies that were provided (by HUD) under the contract come from an allocation calculated by HUD to serve the greater Rochester area". In fact, Certificates and Vouchers that have been awarded to the Town over the years, were done so on the basis of housing affordability needs of residents of the Town of Irondequoit, as identified in various Town plans, such as the Comprehensive Housing Affordability Strategy and the Consolidated Plan. Applications for Certificates/Vouchers have always required certification of compliance with these plans. Presently, HUD is ranking applications for "Fair Share" Vouchers, using 'Housing Needs' as the most heavily weighted criterion. HUD is defining 'Housing Needs' as the number of households in the jurisdiction (i.e., the Town of Irondequoit) paying more than 50% of their income for shelter, as a percentage of the total number of these households in the state. HUD does not look at the greater Rochester area when scoring Irondequoit's application.

However, the Town will amend Section B - Screening, Selection and Eligibility determination of Applicants - and Section C -Eligibility Documentation/Eligibility Interview - by eliminating B(1) and C(1) . Currently, there are no applicants on the Section 8 waiting list categorized as residents. The waiting list will remain closed and all non-resident applicants on the waiting list will be canvassed in the order of their original application date.

Attachment C

PROCEDURE

The policies and procedures governing informal reviews and hearings can be found in Section III (Q) of the Town's Section 8 Administrative Plan.

Reviews

Applicants are offered an informal review when decisions are made to deny placement on the waiting list; issuance of a Voucher or participation in the program. Applicants requesting a review must do so in writing, generally, within ten days of the denial. Reviews are not generally held in person Applicants must present their objections to the denial in writing, unless circumstances (e.g., illiteracy, language barrier, etc.) dictate otherwise. All information presented by the applicant is reviewed by a Manager - not associated with the original decision -prior to making a final decision. The applicant is notified of the final decision within ten days of the Town's receipt of their request for a review

Applicants are not provided the opportunity for an informal review of any of the following:

- a determination of the family unit size in accordance with the occupancy policies and subsidy standards detailed in the Section 8 Administrative Plan;
- a decision by the Town not to "toll" or extend a family's Voucher,
- a decision by the Town not to approve the leasing of a unit and execute a Housing Choice Voucher Contract with an owner;

- a decision by the Town that a unit selected by the family is not in compliance with Housing Quality Standards because of the size and/or condition of the unit
- general policy issues or class grievances.

Hearings

The Town of Irondequoit affords participant families the opportunity for an informal hearing to consider whether certain HA decisions relating to the individual circumstances of the family are in accordance with the applicable statutes, regulations and policies in the Section 8 Administrative Plan.

Requests for informal hearings are handled in one of two ways. If the family disputes a HA decision pursuant to 24CFR982.555(a)(1)(i) , (ii) or (iii) , the family is provided with a written explanation of the decision and offered the opportunity to request an informal hearing. In these cases, the hearing is conducted by a Manager. The family is instructed that they must attend in person and present any and all documentation and /or witnesses at this time.

In cases pursuant to 24CFR982.555 (a)(1)(iv) (v) or (vi) participant families are notified that they have the opportunity to request an informal hearing. The hearing must be requested in writing. The Rochester Housing Authority - the Town of Irondequoit's Section 8 Administrative Agent - has a contract with an independent hearing officer. This hearing officer schedules and conducts the hearing and notifies the family of its right to present evidence and witnesses at the hearing. They are further notified that they have the right to bring an attorney to the hearing (mention is made in this notice of the Monroe County Legal Assistance Corporation which provides free legal services for eligible, low income families) and, finally, that they and/or their attorney have the right to examine RHA'S file prior to the hearing. Both parties are notified by the hearing officer that any documents intended for presentation at the hearing must be made available to the other party no sooner than 72 hours before the hearing.

The hearings are conducted in accordance with 24CFR982.555(e). Both the HA and the family are notified of the hearing officer's decision within ten business days of hearing.
