2. If yes, the comments are: (if comments were received, the PHA MUST select one)
  - Attached at Attachment (File name)
  - Provided below:
    1. Payment Standards:

RAB Member Yolanda Smith commented that due to the low Fair Market Rents, there really wasn't much choice for families participating in Section 8. They didn't really have the option of renting a single family home as most of the rents for houses were too high for consideration.
    2. Informal Review Procedure. When considering if additional measures were necessary to protect the rights of applicants, such as a hearing as opposed to an informal review, RAB member Karen Block stated that applicants seemed to have an opportunity to review their case under the Informal Review Procedure. She asked for clarification on who at the PHA would review the case. RAB Member Sandra Martin said she had not had any problems with the procedure as it was. RBA Member Yolanda Smith stated that if there was no problems with the way it was working now, why change it? RAB Member Karen Block suggested that participants be provided with a copy of their worksheet and an explanation of how any change in tenant rent was calculated. Even if the household did not request a hearing.

3. Resident Advisory Board Participation. RAB member Karen Block suggested sending an outline of the meeting agenda along with the minutes to members who were unable to attend.

4. Affirmatively marketing to groups with disproportionate Housing Needs. Minority Representative Yolanda Smith, stated that one of the problems in our community is that a lot of the Hispanics are non-citizens and are not aware of how this affects their eligibility. The members of the RAB jointly discussed ways to affirmatively market to the Hispanic population, including advertising and participating on Hispanic talk shows, putting notices on the bulletin boards in churches, contacting community organizations that serve a high percentage of minorities including the hispanic population

5. Promoting adequate and affordable housing Ms. Karen Block asked how the HA planned to promote adequate and affordable housing. –Marketing to owners with good housing units; forming a landlord advisory committee to make the program more user friendly and helping educate owners about the benefits of the program. The PHA makes inspections to assure basic housing quality standards are met, and actively works with other community based organizations such as Columbia Cascade Housing to develop decent, affordable housing in the community. Karen asked where the sources for development came from. Examples include State Housing Trust Funds, LIHTC, HUD HOME fund, Mental Health grants, community donations, contributions from the PHAs operating funds, etc.

6. Income Targeting - RAB Member Yolanda Smith stated that she would like to see the targeting changed to 50% ELI and 50% LI. She stated the only reason she was able to receive assistance was because she was participating in a special Welfare to Work program and that otherwise she would still be on the waiting list and as a result could have lost her housing which would make it difficult for her to retain her employment.

7. Family Self-Sufficiency. RAP Member Sandra Martin pointed out the FSS had been a tremendous help to her.

8. Extensions to Time to use Voucher. . RAB member Sandra Martin stated her experience in getting an extension helped her get a place to live.

3. In what manner did the PHA address those comments? (select all that apply)

Considered comments, but determined that no changes to the PHA Plan were necessary.

The PHA changed portions of the PHA Plan in response to comments

List changes below:

Payments Standards increased to 110% in Wasco and Hood River 1, 2 bedrooms, added a provision to request 120% approval to accommodate persons with disabilities.
