Osceola Housing Authority Public Housing Program Policy

DECONCENTRATION

All of the Osceola Housing Authority's Public Housing developments are one and two-family homes scattered throughout two communities and are operated in conjunction with its Family Self-Sufficiency and Section 5(h) Homeownership Programs. Consequently, there are no concentrations of low-income public housing households; and adjusted tenant incomes currently range from 1 % to 70 %, reflecting their progression from very-low-income to self-sufficient families.

The Housing Authority Board of Commissioners has determined that the nature of its Public Housing and incentive programs have been successful at achieving a desired level of income mixes and deconcentration; and the implementation of additional policies, measures or incentives are not needed at this time to ensure continued deconcentration.
