C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

Changes made in the Capital Fund Program for 2001 are the result of a change of priorities as identified by the Resident Advisory Board in fiscal year 2000. These priorities were changed as a result of the Resident Advisory Board's input from the resident body at large and the re-evaluation of those priorities by the Board of Commissioners of the Housing Authority of the City of Fort Morgan. The following major work categories were established as greatest need:

- a. Additional parking spaces needed in all parking lots due to increased numbers of elderly driving car; need for loading and unloading in handicapped areas of all buildings.
- b. Landscaping hills around the complex to address the need to remove water from buildings; decrease grassed areas needing water since the cost of that utility increased; and xeriscaping to improve curb appeal and the use of less water.
- c. Other major work categories listed for completion in 2001 have been moved to another year in the five-year planning. (Major work categories transferred to another year were: Boiler replacement; replacement of rain gutter and down spouts on a three-story building; and the replacement of all wood structured storm windows.)

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

All major work changes were reviewed by the Resident Advisory Board after advance notification of the purpose of the meetings and after resident input was given to the Resident Advisory Board.

RE: Resident Survey

INSTRUCTIONS & PURPOSE: The Resident Advisory Board at Hillcrest is asking a few simple questions referenced to the subjects of “safety” and “communication” as perceived by the residents living at Hillcrest. Similar questions were asked by the Housing & Urban Development’s Real Estate Assessment Center (REAC) last year. A sampling of residents will receive a similar survey again in the year 2000. The answers to these questions will give the Resident Advisory Board some feedback in reference to the issues of safety and communication.

Please complete this brief survey no later than Friday, July 28 and place it in the box located in the mail room. The results of this brief survey will be tabulated by the Resident Advisory Board on Monday, July 31.
