FOLLOW-UP PLAN

COMMUNICATIONS

The Housing Authority communicates with residents each month in the following ways:

- A monthly newsletter is published and enclosed with the residents' rent statements with items of interest to residents i.e., reminders of what work maintenance is performing in the neighborhoods, contests that residents/children may participate in, safety notes, etc.
- Policies are presented to the resident association for comments before being presented to the Board for approval.
- Resident meetings are held monthly and all residents are encouraged to participate.

SAFETY

The Housing Authority has the following procedures in place for safety concerns:

- A Neighborhood Watch program encourages residents to call police when disturbances occur.
- A screening process is in effect which denies housing admission to individuals who do not qualify with the ACOP.
- The Authority has adopted the "One Strike and You're Out Policy" and this has helped in the removal of residents when the situation warrants action.
- Preventative Drug education is given to residents annually in conjunction with Red Ribbon Week.
