KNOX COUNTY HOUSING AUTHORITY
STATEMENT OF CAPACITY TO OPERATE A
TENANT-BASED “SECTION 8” HOMEOWNERSHIP PROGRAM

December, 2000

As stated in the Knox County Housing Authority (KCHA) “Section 8” program administrative plan as revised December, 2000, the KCHA has established a minimum down payment of three percent of the total purchase price of the home for families purchasing homes with “Section 8” assistance. Further, one percent of that purchase price must be paid from the family’s own resources at the time the down payment is made.

Any financing of the cost of a home purchased must be provided, insured, or guaranteed by the State or Federal government. That financing must comply with secondary mortgage market underwriting requirements or with generally accepted private sector underwriting requirements.

The Knox County Housing Authority will consult with local real estate and mortgage professionals as well as the various government agencies involved in assisting lower income families purchase homes to assure that the homeownership program is properly administered and benefits as many families as possible.

KNOX COUNTY HOUSING AUTHORITY

FIVE-YEAR PLAN PROGRESS REPORT

December, 2000

The Knox County Housing Authority has been a key element in the community's human services delivery system for many years and continues to fulfill that role. Our mission statement defines providing housing of the highest possible quality to individuals and families as our primary focus. Our maintenance staff has assured that each of the 100 to 150 families who lease apartment form us each year receives a unit that is completely cleaned and reconditioned before they move in. Through our capital improvement program all of our housing units have received extensive upgrades in recent years. These improvements include replacements of heating and cooling systems, kitchen appliances, windows, doors, flooring, roofing, and siding. Some new, multi-family housing has been built in the area since the KCHA stock was first occupied. It is doubtful, however that any other housing manager in the community have expended nearly the funds and effort to maintain and upgrade on a per-unit basis over the past few years as the KCHA has.

The KCHA tenant-based "Section 8" program also continues serve the housing needs of lower income families as best it can. This program has been hampered for several years by an unreasonably low Fair Market Rents as established by HUD. Even with limited funds as a handicap, the "Section 8" program has seen its utilization rate climb from 75% to 85% in the last two years.

The KCHA has an established history of providing services other than housing. With funding made available through grants KCHA provides a range of vocational and educational classes. Special programs are offered for young people that use sports and recreational activities to instill positive values and discourage drug and criminal activity. KCHA has formal agreements with the county Department of Human Services (TANF), area public schools, the community college, the community mental health agency, and the city law enforcement and recreational departments to coordinate and provide a spectrum of services for tenants. All designed to encourage independence and discourage counter-productive life styles.

The KCHA has cultivated a positive relationship with the local news media. They have full access to all aspects of the operation and regularly produce articles illustrating the KCHA's various tenant services and ongoing effort to maintain and improve its housing stock.

An audit of the F.Y.E. 3/31/2000 operations of the KCHA resulted in no findings. The authority has consistently shown a fund surplus over expenses each year and currently has operating reserves at the 75% level, which was targeted as an objective to be met by the end of its 2005 fiscal year.
