Attachment A: Deconcentration Policy

Deconcentration

In order to achieve deconcentration of poverty and income mixing, the Housing Authority shall offer incentives for eligible families having higher incomes to occupy dwelling units in predominantly lower-income projects or for eligible families having lower incomes to occupy predominantly higher-income projects. Any eligible family has the absolute discretion to accept or reject the incentive such that the Housing Authority will not take any adverse action toward that family should it choose to reject the incentive. Neither shall this policy interfere with the use of site-based waiting lists. Nevertheless, the Housing Authority shall, when able, skip over that family in order to reach another family and implement the policy, since this is not considered an adverse action.

Unit Offer

When a unit becomes available, the Housing Authority will contact the first family on the waiting list who has the highest priority and whose income category meets the income goal and/or deconcentration goal. The Housing Authority will telephone the first family and if they cannot be reached by telephone, a written offer for the unit will be made by letter. The family will have five (5) business days to respond to the Housing Authority in regards to the offer.

The family will have the opportunity to see the unit and they will have two (2) business days to accept or reject the offered unit. The offer and the family's response to the offer will be documented in the tenant file. A letter will be sent to the family confirming their response.

Attachment B: Implementation of Public Housing Resident Community Service Requirement

Homer Housing Authority will implement the following Resident Community Service policy by first issuing a letter to all residents explaining the policy and notifying them of their status, either exempt or non-exempt, and the requirements to comply.

General

Notification of the Requirements

The PHA shall identify all adult family members who are apparently not exempt from the community service requirement. The PHA shall notify all such family members of the community service requirement and of the categories of individuals who are exempt from the requirement. The notification will provide the opportunity for family members to claim and explain an exempt status. The PHA shall verify such claims. The notification will advise families that their community service obligation will begin upon the effective date of their first annual reexamination on or after (insert fiscal year beginning after October 1, 2000). For families paying a flat rent, the obligation begins on the date their annual reexamination would have been effective had an annual reexamination taken place. It will also advise them that failure to comply with the community service requirement will result in ineligibility for continued occupancy at the time of any subsequent annual reexamination.

Exemptions

The following adult family members of tenant families are exempt from this requirement:

- A. Family members who are 62 or older.*
- B. Family members who are blind or disabled as defined under 216(I)(1) or 1614 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 416(I)(1) and who certifies that because of this disability she or he is unable to comply with the community service requirements.*

An economic self sufficiency program is one that is designed to encourage, assist, train or facilitate the economic independence of participants and their families or to provide work for participants. These programs may include programs for job training, work placement, basic skills training, education, English proficiency, work fare, financial or household management, apprenticeship, and any program necessary to ready a participant to work (such as substance abuse or mental health treatment). ## Opportunity for Cure

The PHA will offer the family member(s) the opportunity to enter into an agreement prior to the anniversary of the lease. The agreement shall state that the family member(s) agrees to enter into an economic self-sufficiency program or agrees to contribute to community service for as many hours as needed to comply with the requirement over the past 12-month period. The cure shall occur over the 12-month period beginning with the date of the agreement and the resident shall at the same time stay current with that year's community service requirement. The first hours a resident earns go toward the current commitment until the current year's commitment is made. The volunteer coordinator will assist the family member in identifying volunteer opportunities and will track compliance on a monthly basis. If any applicable family member does not accept the terms of the agreement, does not fulfill their obligation to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program, or falls behind in their obligation under the agreement to perform community service, the PHA shall take action to terminate the lease.
