C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

An amendment and deviation of the plan shall be defined as a significant change in the goals and or the use of the Section 8 program. At that time a full public hearing and Hud review shall be necessary before any changes are made.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

The Stow Housing Authority sent a notice to each participant in the federal program to request their assistance to develop the plan and or to serve on the resident advisory board. Only one person responded to this notice and attended a meeting.

Attachment __3__: Goals and Accomplishments – FY2000

The first year of our PHA Agency Plan ends June 30, 2001, with several of our goals accomplished.

The Authority has conducted outreach to potential voucher landlords. The Director participated in the Massachusetts Rental Housing Association Conference speaking on the Section 8 Voucher Program.

The Authority payment standard is 110% of the FMR, which enables the Authority to be fully leased.

The Stow Housing Authority continues to provide voucher mobility counseling.
