SOUTH LYON HOUSING COMMISSION
AGENCY PLAN MEETING
RESIDENT ADVISORY BOARD
FEBRUARY 28, 2001

Board members were asked to sign in and attendance was recorded (see attached). Introductions were made.

The Meeting was called to order at 7:08pm.

All participants were shown the draft of the Agency Plan and were given a "Comments & Suggestions" sheet to complete after the meeting.

Sharon Thomas and Cindy Rapson reviewed the Agency Plan as presented. Participants were encouraged to write down their comments or suggestions (see attached). An update was also given to the residents regarding the status of modernization plans for Washington Manor (Senior Building), and the Disposition Application that was filed with the U.S. Dept. of HUD for Hillside Manor (Multi-Family Units).

Kathy Swarthout, Section 8 Coordinator for Plymouth Housing Commission, discussed the Section 8 Program with the residents of Hillside Manor. The residents were concerned about their future should the Disposition Application be approved.

During the review, the following issues were discussed:

- The majority of the residents of Washington Manor would like to see their units renovated, i.e. updated kitchens and baths, new appliances, windows, and front doors. They are also concerned with the condition of their roofs and gutters (especially during this past winter – the gutters had ice build-up).
- The parking lot was also a big issue with the residents of Washington Manor. There are a limited number of parking spaces and not enough room for visitors; local business traffic cause unwanted visitors into their parking lot; and the parking lot itself needs maintenance (cracks, potholes, etc.)
- Mr. Lowell Burgess, Washington Manor resident, wanted to make a point to commend the staff of South Lyon Housing Commission, especially the Maintenance Supervisor, Ernie Salazar. He felt that sometimes we focus on the negative too much and we need to look more on the positive side. He wanted to point out that sometimes progress takes time and that patience is needed. He feels that the staff and Commissioners of the South Lyon Housing Commission are doing their best to take care of the residents.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:40pm.
