Required Attachment g: Progress in meeting mission and goals.

The GHC has over the past year endeavored to maintain its high performance in meeting its obligation to provide safe sanitary housing. Over the past year many projects have been undertaken to ensure the viability of the GHC, in an ever more competitive housing market. As we continue to modernize our housing stock, we will also attempt to allow for greater choice in housing by by expanding our section eight program through the application of additional for additional section eight vouchers.

If funds allow, the GHC will continue to meet its obligations to its tenants, the City of Grayling and the federal government.
