Five Year Mission and Goals Progress Report

Steps have been taken in regard to constructing additional units on currently owned property. These steps include: consulting an architect, visiting other Public Housing Agencies similar in size for comparison. Continued communications with County Agencies that provide services to the elderly and disabled.

During the past year we have provided additional amenities in the form of : improved lighting, storm doors, repaired/refinished decks, the addition of doorbells, frost free refrigerators, caulked all windows, enhanced building stock with aluminum trim.

Caseville Housing Commission Implementation of Resident Community Service Requirements

One hundred percent of the residents of Oakwood Senior Housing are elderly or disabled and therefore exempt from Community Service requirements. The Caseville Housing Commission has been communicating with Mr. Ronald Wing of the FIA in Bad Axe, MI regarding the Public Housing Community Service Requirements. Mr. Wing has assured us that if in the future Oakwood has a resident that is not exempt due to being over the age of 62 or disabled, the FIA will work with CHC to establish a plan for such a resident.
