Lenoir Housing Authority

Follow-Up Plan Summary

The Lenoir Housing Authority has been dedicated to improving the lives of the residents and the properties in which we serve. In response to the Fiscal year 2000 Resident Satisfaction Survey, the Lenoir Housing Authority has noted its weaknesses and has created a Follow-Up Plan to address any deficiencies. In agreement with our Annual Plan requirements, the Lenoir Housing Authority will submit its Follow-Up Plan as part of our Annual Plan submission on July 2001. The summary of our Follow-Up Plan is as follows...

Safety: The Lenoir Housing Authority has established a partnership with the Lenoir Police Department under the organizational name of HARPCO (Housing Authority, residents, Police, and Community Organization). HARPCO meets once a month to give an open forum for residents and police to discuss any problems concerning crime and safety in the area. HARPCO also gives the residents an opportunity to work with the police in a non-confrontational manner. Also, through our partnership, the Lenoir Housing Authority is requiring the police officers who patrol sites to fill out an "LHA Report" for any crimes or suspicious activity on the properties, so we can better increase safety and decrease crime. Finally, the Lenoir Housing Authority are using funds received through the Public Housing Drug Elimination Program (PHDEP) to aid in the fight of illegal drugs on site through education, awareness, and added patrols for the betterment of safety on the many sites.

Neighborhood Appearance: The Lenoir Housing Authority is currently employing two groundskeepers to assist in the pick-up of trash on the sites. Also, the Lenoir Housing Authority has budgeted monies from the 1999 Comprehensive Improvement Assistance Program (CIAP) and the 2000 Capital Funding Program to improve external dwelling structures appearance and erosion control.

This is a summary of the Follow-Up Plan created by the Lenoir Housing Authority in response to answers and concerns given by the residents of Public Housing. We do the Follow-Up Plan to analyze weaknesses and build on strengths in creating a peaceful, safe and decent place for the residents of the Lenoir Housing Authority to reside. Thank you.

Sincerely Yours,

James R. Anders II
Executive Director
