ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

This Executive Summary provides a brief overview of the information contained in the plan and an updating of activity that has transpired during the initial year of the five-year plan.

The economic and housing conditions have not had a material change during FYE 2000. HMHA has implemented all of the updated admissions and occupancy requirements required by QHWRA. Impact of the new admission guidelines and rent policies can be demonstrated by the marked increase in average monthly rents charged by the Authority.

The Community Service Policy has been drafted for implementation January 1, 2001. The Pet policy was adopted and implemented January 1, 2000 and has been reviewed for compliance with the updated regulations. It was found to compliant, therefore no additional changes have been made to that policy.

Capital improvements contracts have been awarded on schedule. CIAP 910 was completed in October of 2000. Ninety- five percent of CIAP 911 funds has been awarded, with expected competition in January 2001. Recent Capital funding has been approved. HMHA expects to implement the new grant on schedule.

Homeownership opportunities continue to be available through the HMHA non-profit subsidiary, Hocking Housing Management, Inc. In addition, HMHA has elected to participate in the Section 8 Homeownership program. These activities will expand the housing choices available to Hocking County Residents.

Negotiations with the Tanf agency are nearing completion. HMHA expects to have cooperative agreements in place by January 2001. Current agreements with the Tanf agency provide HMHA funding for the Homeownership training programs. Other economic development and job training programs include the custodial training program operated by HMHA.

HMHA has taken steps to meet the five-year goal of an additional 25 affordable housing units. The Authority expects to complete the acquisition of two one-bedroom units by December 31, 2000. HMHA plans to purchase of 6 additional units by December 31 2001.
