Attachment pa051h01: Action Plan for the Resident Satisfaction Assessment Survey

Of the five components in the Resident Assessment Satisfaction Survey for fiscal year ending December 31, 1999, the Bucks County Housing Authority received a score lower than the required threshold of 75% in only one. That component was safety, with a score of 56.6%. Because the Authority's score missed the threshold, HUD requires an Action Plan to address this apparent concern of the residents.

Unfortunately the results provided by HUD do not provide any detail to inform the Authority which public housing development(s) have this apparent concern. We will develop an Action Plan when HUD modifies its computer system to identify by development where the concern exists.
