1. We have done well in reducing Public Housing vacancies
2. We have tried very hard to increase customer satisfaction by letting them know that we are always available to answer their questions and by letting them know that we want their input and ideas as to what they need to make things better.
3. We are going to try and get central and heat in the units, and the tenants are very happy about that , that has given them more incentive to cooperate with us.

These are some of the things that we have accomplished this last year and are planning to continue to work with the tenants and let them be part of our plans for future events and modernization etc.
