ii. Executive Summary

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

The Burrton Housing Authority will continue to provide safe, decent housing, without discrimination, for families of limited income. Elderly Residents will be offered services through Resident Opportunity Self Sufficiency (Ross) funds administered by the Harvey County Department on Aging, to enable them to remain in their apartments longer with a greater degree of independence. The main financial goal is to provide a safe room and more ramps into units, which are tenant priority items. We are attempting to provide social and educational outlets for our tenants. Programs utilizing input from local police, fire and ambulance departments will be continued. The Burrton Housing Authority will continue to work with the City of Burrton to make the City of Burrton a more attractive and viable community for our residents. Capital funds will be used to maintain the project and make improvements that will improve our marketability.
