The FH A does not administer any Public Housing units and has converted all Section 8 Certificate to Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers as of September 1, 2001. Additionally, all property owners of Moderate Rehabilitation Program funded units in Fairfield have chosen to “opt out” of the program and these formerly affordable units have been converted to market rate rents. The FH A has applied for, and received, 113 additional Housing Choice Vouchers from HUD to provide rental assistance to income eligible families residing in Mod Rehab units opting out of the program to maintain the stock of affordable housing in Fairfield. Sixteen of these Opt -Out Vouchers were Enhanced Vouchers, which maintained the affordability of units that converted to rents higher than those normally allowed by HUD guidelines.

This Plan follows the HUD -required format for Agency Plans. Sections of this Plan referring to Public Housing, Section 8 Certificates or Moderate Rehabilitation units are not applicable and are so indicated.

Section 8 Homeownership Capacity Statement

The Fairfield Housing Authority (FHA) plans to implement a Section 8 Homeownership Program for families receiving Section 8 tenant-based rental assistance during fiscal year 2002 -2003. The FHA will develop administrative policies and procedures for the program prior to implementation. The FHA Section 8 Homeownership Program administrative policy will employ, at a minimum, the following provisions:

1. Require a minimum homeowner down payment of at least three percent (3%), of which at least one percent (1%) must come from the family's resources.
2. Require that home purchase financing will: be provided, insured or guaranteed by the State or Federal government; comply with secondary mortgage underwriting requirements; or comply with generally accepted private sector underwriting standards.

These requirements demonstrate the capacity of the FHA to administer a successful Section 8 Homeownership Program.
