One of these seven specific objectives under this goal is to provide tenant -based rental subsidies to make market rate housing units affordable. Each year, 45% of the County's HOME funds are reallocated to the Sonoma County Housing Authority's Tenant-Based Rental Assistance Program.

The Sonoma County Consolidated Plan 2000 also includes a goal to create facilities and services that meet the needs of the County's low -income residents. One of the five specific objectives under this goal is to facilitate economic integration and self -sufficiency for lower income persons. Under this objective, the County has allocated at least $50,000 in CDBG funds each year to the Family Self -Sufficiency Project H.E.R.O. program.
