ii. Executive Summary

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

At PHA option, provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan

This plan was implemented to meet all required components of the QHWRA annual and 5 year plans and remains the same as the past year. Most specifically the Lease and the Admissions and Occupancy Policies were revised to include the Community Service 8 hour requirements, the drug related criminal activities restrictions, the restricted aide to non-citizens rule, and PHA Consolidation with the State of Colorado Consolidated Plans.

The de-concentration of Poverty and the Civil Rights Certifications were approved by Board Resolution. A hardship Policy on minimum and flat rents was adopted, also, a policy stating a working relationship with the County Sheriff's Office and the local Social Services Department. Other minor components have been added or revised to meet the needs of our local citizenry and QHWRA Statues.

The plan also includes property improvements to maintain the units in a decent, safe and sanitary condition for present and future tenants. These are not emergencies and there is no demolition or conversion activities planned as we are presently meeting the housing needs of the community
