Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Ripley County Public Housing Agency's (PHA) Annual Plan is a reflection of continued efforts to provide quality, affordable housing to income disadvantaged individuals and families in Southeast Missouri. Expression of this effort is included in the statement to seek expansion of the current program through submission of applications for additional rental vouchers. A commitment to promote economic opportunities for applicants and tenants alike is contained in the goals supporting self-sufficiency and asset development through the Family Self-Sufficiency Program and voucher mobility which assures the ability of individuals and families to relocate to employment centers, if necessary. Also, an established social service agencies' resources network will continue to be utilized to offer access to support for elderly and disabled individuals and families. The plan stresses a desire to increase administrative efficiency and effectiveness through the SEMAP evaluation mechanism and enhanced contact with and input from participants. Ripley County PHA's plan is not necessarily innovative or unusual, but the plan does indicate a priority to provide, and promote, assisted housing, for those most in need, for economic and social well-being for the communities in its jurisdiction, as well as, the participating individuals and families.

1. Brief statement of progress in meeting the 5-year plan mission and goals:

Response: The Ripley County Public Housing Agency (PHA) has taken numerous steps in an attempt to meet the goals and objectives outlined in its 5-year plan. To increase the availability of decent, safe and affordable housing the Ripley County PHA has applied for additional housing voucher under the Fiscal Year 2001 and Fiscal Year 2002 Super NOFA's. Further, the Ripley County PHA has applied for and received salary support for its Family Self-Sufficiency coordinator. Ripley County PHA staff members have attended training sessions offered by Nan McKay and the Missouri Association of Rural Public Housing Agencies (MARPHA) in an effort to improve voucher management. A Resident Advisory Board was established, with one member serving on the Ripley County PHA Board, as an attempt to improve client satisfaction with the delivery and administration of the program. An attempt, although unsuccessful, was made to conduct a landlord meeting for the purpose of providing information about the benefits of housing Section 8 Voucher participants. The Ripley County PHA is continually seeking methods for improving the delivery of information about employment and housing opportunities. Over the past two calendar years, the Ripley County PHA has been part of an effort by the Ozark Foothills Regional Planning Commission (RPC), the PHA's administrative umbrella agency, to advertise Fair Housing and Impediments to Fair Housing issues in the five (5) counties and 16 cities within its jurisdiction.

The Ripley County PHA defines "substantial deviation" or "significant amendment or modification" as follows:

Changes to rent or admissions policies or organization of the waiting list; and Additions of non-emergency work items or items not included in the current Annual Plan or Five-Year Plan.
