Minutes of Resident Advisory Board

August 23, 2001

Present: Mary Noonan, Elizabeth Parker , Marjorie Whitney and Jon Dimitroff and Vernon Kelley

Previous minutes were accepted as read, moved by Jon, second by Marjorie.

Mary made a motion to nominate Marjorie as Secretary/Treasurer, Jon seconds.
Unanimous vote to approve.

Jon made a motion to nominate Mary as Chairperson for one year to date, Marjorie seconds.
Unanimous vote to approve.

Mary suggests we go to Derry Housing & Redevelopment Authority (DHRA) meetings. She expresses a concern that they meet in a building that is big enough to hold people. This is important since it is an open meeting to the public. We will bring it up in writing to Kathy Galvin, President, (DHRA), to request that a larger meeting place to accommodate elderly and other interested community members be found.

Mary also asked for consensus of how the groups feels about how DHRA office personnel has treated our group. Our comments were that we have always been treated with respect, as a group as well as individually. We agreed unanimously that we were more than pleased with the competency and expertise of those in this office. A resounding verbal vote of confidence was given. Mary wanted this perspective having fielded comments from some community grumblers. Personally, as Recording Secretary of this Resident Advisory Board of DHRA, I have found their help to be invaluable. As, we represent about 100 people, we felt that DHRA personnel should receive formal recognition.

Mary requests of Vern that yard sale material at 1 and 3 Peabody Road Annex Apartments be removed. She questions how to get larger storage units for tenants. Vern will report.

Vern reports that he has received 20 new vouchers for Section 8 Housing. Vern also finds that the office requires more personnel to keep up with the ever increasing work load and the expanded housing needs. (i.e., DHRA now collects rent for several housing complexes)

Motion was made by Jon and seconded by Mary to hold meeting every other month. Approved.

Next Meeting Wednesday, October 17, 5:00 p.m. at DHRA office.

Respectfully submitted:

Marjorie Whitney
