Describe the PHA's income based rent setting policy/ies for public housing using, including discretionary (that is, not required by statute or regulation) income disregards and exclusions, in the appropriate spaces below.

a. Use of discretionary policies: (select one)

The PHA will not employ any discretionary rent-setting policies for income based rent in public housing. (If selected, skip to sub-component (2))

---or---

The PHA employs discretionary policies for determining income based rent (If selected, continue to question b.)

Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy and Procedures: The Housing Authority shall grant an exemption from payment of this minimum rent if the family is unable to pay that rent as a result of financial hardship, as described in the responsible entity's written policies.

Financial hardship. The financial hardships shall include the following: suspend the minimum rent required immediately, until the Housing Authority determines whether there is a qualifying financial hardship and whether the hardship is long term.

Determination of Temporary Financial Hardship. If the Housing Authority determines there is a qualifying hardship, but that it is temporary, the Housing Authority reinstates the minimum rent from the time of suspension. The Housing Authority will not evict the family for nonpayment of the amount of minimum rent in excess of the tenant rent otherwise payable during the 90-day period beginning on the date the family requested an exemption. The Housing Authority will offer the family a reasonable repayment agreement for the amount of back rent owed.

If the Housing Authority determines there is no qualifying hardship exemption, the Housing Authority shall reinstate the minimum rent including the back payment for minimum rent from the time of suspension on terms and conditions established by the Housing Authority.

The Housing Authority recognizes that this requirement may impose severe hardships for some assisted families that have adjusted monthly incomes so low that their rental obligation is below the "minimum rent" charged. These families may be unable to pay the "minimum rent," which in turn may expose them to eviction for nonpayment. Therefore, the Housing Authority shall take action to ensure that families with severe hardships are not evicted specifically as a result of their inability to pay the minimum rents.

The Authority’s measured goals are revised to include the following:

Continue to provide training to improve qualifications in areas of finance, procurement, capital funds, administration, housing maintenance and inspection , resident programs and Section 8 Administration.

Reduce vacancies to be at 75% occupancy by December 31, 2002.

Present rate is 71%.

Improve PHAS score to 60% by December 31, 2002

Improve Section 8 Voucher Program by implementing a quality control program

Develop a process for effectively addressing and resolving correctable resident dissatisfaction items.

Achieve an income mix by conducting an assessment of current occupancy relative to tenant incomes of each development and offering the opportunity for relocation based on the Authority’s findings. In addition HATT will offer choice of flat rents or income based rents to eligible families. this should help accomplish the deconcentration and income mix objectives.

Work with the Texarkana Police Department to implement a tracking system for crime/crime related problems by site and implement a system for staff to report criminal activity to Texarkana Police Department.

Implement Community Service Requirements in accordance with QHWRA

The Housing Authority will continue to conduct outreach in an effort to obtain and maintain a well-balanced application pool. Outreach efforts will take into consideration the level of vacant units, unit availability through turnover, and waiting list characteristics. The Housing Authority will assess these factors quarterly in order to determine the need and scope of the marketing effort.

The Authority remains committed to beginning renovation of selected public housing communities.

We have reduced our tenants accounts receivables. We are also in the process of setting up police sub-stations ,in 5 of our sites , that will be manned by Texarkana Texas Police officers . The residents should feel safer with uniformed officers on site.

All newly required policies have or are being implemented in compliance with our Agency Plan and the QHWRA (Quality Housing and Work Recovery Act of 1998)

Resident involvement and feedback from our Resident Advisory Board continues to play a vital role to ensure their participation.
