[24CFRPart903.79(r)]

James City County Office of Housing and Community Development acts as the sole PHA administrator for the jurisdiction for the Section 8 Choice Voucher Program. Since that time extensive staff effort has been expended to increase the number of utilized housing choice vouchers, utilization of special program vouchers, effective rental payment procedures, good customer service to tenants and landlords, and provide training opportunities to all staff working the program. Future objectives include but are not limited to full utilization of available vouchers, applying for additional vouchers as they become available, completing a successful close out of the first year end and establishing a successful Section 8 homeownership program in the future.
