ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

The Eutaw Housing Authority has a commitment to provide safe, decent and affordable housing to an ever changing clientele. It is part of the plan to renovate to provide safe housing. This Authority is approximately 40 years old and has had very little rehabilitation over the years. The goals include the complete modernization of approximately 20 units with the Capital Funds over the next two years and a continuation of modernization with future funding until all fifty units have been rehabbed.

Greene County, the county site for Eutaw Housing Authority, is in a very poor rural area in the known Black Belt of Alabama. There exist very little economic opportunity in the county; thereby, forcing its citizens to travel to surrounding areas for employment. This Authority plans to seek means through grants and gifts to promote economic change in the area.

A community center for the residents is also visualized to provide a central recreational and educational facility. This Authority will request permission to remove a five-bedroom unit to develop the center. Once approved and a center is development, this Authority will be able to apply for economic and social development funding to support its operation.

This Authority plans to partner with other local public agencies to provide economic self-sufficiency to its residents. Such liaisons will include the Department of Human Resources and the Maude L. Whatley Health Center. Local business will be asked to partner to provide training for unemployed residents. A GED program will be established to encourage residents to become educationally prepared to compete for local employment and employment in the surrounding counties.
