ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

Clay County Housing is a small; Section 8 only Program with limited staffs, which functions primarily as an agent of the County and is therefore constrained in some of our activities. We are limited in the sorts of Programs we can offer our clients and in the control we have over their living situations. We have developed a 5-year Plan with these limitations in mind. In order to set realistic, achievable goals, the Clay County Housing Dept. has conceived its Plan in terms of a few crucial programs carried out over a full five-year period, rather than thinking in terms of requiring significant changes in each plan year. We will take measures to assure affordable housing for all our assisted families and work toward increasing our Section 8 lease up rates by increasing Owner understanding and acceptance of the Program. Should they come available we plan to apply for special-purpose vouchers targeted to the elderly and disabled.

As set forth in our Annual Plan, The Clay County Housing Dept. has examined it's program and has addressed any impediments to fair housing choices within our limited resources.

The first meeting was held on October 15,1999 and no one attended. The next meeting was held on October 25,1999 with six people attending. A board was appointed with a President. No suggestions were given at this time. The next meeting was held on November 22,1999 with two people attending. We discussed repairs, but no suggestions were given. The next meeting was on December 16,1999 with no one attending. Hopefully we will get more tenants input concerning our program and any improvements that need to be made.

The President of the Tenant Advisory Board went off the program in Feb. 2002. The Board did not elect another president or conduct any more meetings from that time to present. Letters were sent to all tenants in June 2002 to form another Tenant Advisory Board with no response from any of the tenants. We will send additional letters out to all tenants to see if anyone is interested in forming another Tenant Advisory Board.
