Statement of Progress Attachment

The Agency created and filled the position of a fulltime Receptionist/Applications Clerk last year. We are now revising our processes and reassigning job responsibilities. When we have completed this revision, there will be three Section 8 Housing Specialists who will process families from the point of application until they leave the program. We feel this method will enhance continuity of service, since each tenant will have only one case worker during their tenure with the program.

The agency's inspector is now under the supervision of the City of Ashland Code Enforcement Division of the Community Development Department. This move was made as an effort to facilitate consistent application of the City of Ashland Property Maintenance Code that was adopted to replace Housing Quality Standards. Supervision by the Code Enforcement Division also streamlines the Quality Control Inspections process.

Our waiting list has approximately 4.65% Black or African American and 6.37% elderly. Of the 573 families currently participating on our program, approximately 5.4% are Black or Hispanic and approximately 48% are elderly/handicapped/disabled. This is due in part to staff briefing of landlords and tenants on fair housing issues.
