C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards for substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

We do not plan any substantial deviations from the 5-year Plan. The implementation of a new policy or procedure not set forth in the 5-year plan, or change in the implementation of an existing policy or procedure which materially impacts the persons or programs covered by such policy shall be deemed a Significant Deviation. Any deviation and significant amendment would be subject to a full public hearing before being added to the plan.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

We do not anticipate any changes in policy or programs from the existing Plan. The implementation of a new policy or procedure not set forth in the annual year plan, or change in the implementation of an existing policy or procedure which materially impacts the persons or programs covered by such policy shall be deemed a Significant Deviation will be subject to a full public hearing.

Adjustments to exist in policies and procedures, which are not deemed to be Significant Deviations or Substantial Amendments, shall nonetheless be submitted to the Board for review and approval prior to implementation.
