C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

It will be considered a substantial deviation from the 5-Year Plan when a Board decision is made to change the PHA's mission statement, goals or objectives as identified in the 5-Year Plan, including changes to goals or objectives that affect residents or have a significant impact on the PHA's financial status.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

Changes in the Plans or Policies of the PHA that require formal approval by the Board of Commissioners will be considered reason for amendment or modification to the Annual PHA Plan.

Attachment A Supporting Documents Available for Review

PHAs are to indicate which documents are available for public review by placing a mark in the “Applicable & On Display” column in the appropriate rows. All listed documents must be on display if applicable to the program activities conducted by the PHA.

Required Attachment E : Membership of the Resident Advisory Board or Boards

List members of the Resident Advisory Board or Boards: (If the list would be unreasonably long, list organizations represented or otherwise provide a description sufficient to identify how members are chosen.)

Clement Manor consists of 20 units that are occupied by seniors. As the number of residents is quite small, all current residents are considered to be members of the Resident Advisory Board. The residents of Clement Manor and the administrative office staff are regularly in communication with each other ensuring that any concerns are addressed in as prompt a manner as possible.
