C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

Goals

- Additions or deletions of Strategic Goal

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

Programs

- Any change with regard to demolition or disposition, designation of housing, homeownership programs or conversion activities

Capital Budget

- Additions of non-emergency work items (items not included in the current Annual Statement Action Plan) or change in use of replacement reserve funds

Policies

- Changes to rent or admissions policies or organization of the waiting list

An exception to the above definition will be made for any of the above that are adopted to reflect changes in HUD regulatory requirements since such changes are not considered significant amendments by HUD.
