The objective of the Brunswick County Public Housing Agency is to continue in our efforts by providing rental assistance for decent, safe and sanitary housing to very low income families. We are dedicated to promoting freedom of choice to these families of all races and ethnic backgrounds. The aim of the housing agency is to broaden the range of available housing for eligible participants and to improve their quality of life. We will continue to market the Section 8 program to all landlords with emphasis on landlords with property outside of areas occupied by a large number of low income families.
