C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan: A substantial deviation from the five year plan includes: Decisions made by the Board members for a greater need other than what has already been included in the five year plan. The goal of the Housing Authority of Sterling is to try to anticipate the immediate needs of the tenants and adjust our plans to meet those needs.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan: Amendment or modification to the Annual Plan includes: A change in the rental policy, waiting list and emergency purchases.

Resident Advisory Board was selected using residents that are of different age brackets, and family situations. Older, single adults & young single adults with children, and couples with children.

Required Attachment F: Comments of Resident Advisory Board & Explanation of PHA response.

Most residents expressed a need for laundry facility. The residents in project OK03701 expressed the need for new windows and kitchen and bathrooms remodeled. A storm shelter was also an expressed need for residents in OK03701. Most residents in OK03702 agreed the apartments need some landscaping. After considering the needs of the residents, it was agreed to go ahead with new windows for OK03701 and remodel 3 kitchen units. A laundry facility , storm shelter, and landscape is included in the 5 year plan.
