ii. Executive Summary of the Annual PHA Plan

[24 CFR Part 903.7 9 (r)]

Provide a brief overview of the information in the Annual Plan, including highlights of major initiatives and discretionary policies the PHA has included in the Annual Plan.

Georgetown Housing Authority continues to develop a plan that reflects the reality of housing in our community. The hiring of a new staff person that addresses resident service issues has been positive. A newly elected Resident Council is in place and has made great strides in increasing community involvement. GHA continues to offer after school and summer youth programs. Our newsletter has been revamped to include more resident news and a monthly activity calendar. Our off duty police officer program continues with PHDEP funds. Back to School Parade, Family Drug Prevention Festival and Black History month programs also offer residents the opportunity to participate more fully. This plan for year three shows a continuing effort to meet the ever changing needs of people in housing and Section 8 recipients. Our (28-12) scattered site project has been completed and the new three bedroom houses have been occupied. GHA has a preference for victims of domestic violence and through the middle of 2001; we have assisted 25 or more women and their families.
