Comments from Resident Advisory Board

Plans and desires from previous years' Rab meetings were discussed and added to. Priorities were set as reflected in the Capital Fund Program Plan. It was agreed that renovation of the unit interiors should continue to take precedence over any exterior non-essential improvements. Comments from the RAB included the hope that water wells can be dug to enable future landscaping.

Required Attachment F _____ Safety Follow-Up Plan

In this small town of less than 1400 people there are no formal crime prevention programs except Crime Stoppers. Although there is a City Constable who will respond if called, there is no police force and all calls are usually answered by the County Sheriff's Department. Meetings are scheduled to be held in the Authority's Community Room in July with Crime Stoppers personnel, a daytime meeting for these senior residents and an evening meeting for the family residents. It is planned to invite all residents to attend, including children and to educate them in the role of the Crime Stoppers organization in the community. It is also planned to ask the Sheriff to send a Deputy to the evening meeting and talk with family residents about drugs and alcohol.

Required Attachment G__ Voluntary Conversion

Twenty-four of this authority's units were built and designated for the elderly/disabled and are therefore exempt from the requirement to assess voluntary conversion to tenant based assistance.

The remaining six units are for general family occupancy. These units are in good physical condition, always occupied and conversion would not benefit the residents. There is very little rental housing in this small, rural town and conversion would not be appropriate.
