C. Criteria for Substantial Deviation and Significant Amendments

1. Amendment and Deviation Definitions

24 CFR Part 903.7(r)

PHAs are required to define and adopt their own standards of substantial deviation from the 5-year Plan and Significant Amendment to the Annual Plan. The definition of significant amendment is important because it defines when the PHA will subject a change to the policies or activities described in the Annual Plan to full public hearing and HUD review before implementation.

A. Substantial Deviation from the 5-year Plan:

Deviation from the 5-year plan consists of any changes to rent or admissions policies or organization of the waiting list, additions of non-emergency work items or changes in the use of replacement reserve funds under the Capital Fund, and any change with regards to demolition or disposition, designation, homeownership programs or conversion activities.

B. Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan:

Significant Amendment or Modification to the Annual Plan consists of any changes to rent or admissions policies or organization of the waiting list, additions of non-emergency work items or changes in the use of replacement reserve funds under the Capital Fund, and any change with regards to demolition or disposition, designation, homeownership programs or conversion activities
