HARTFORD HOUSING AUTHORITY 2003 ANNUAL PLAN ATTACHMENT “B”

Hartford Housing Authority
Resident Advisory Board
Minutes of the Meeting September 18, 2002

Present: Patricia Searles, Linda Carbino and Terry Chesbro, Director

Meeting called to order at 12 Noon

- Terry reviewed the Year 2003 Annual Plan with the Board. Discussion followed regarding the purchase of another house by our non-profit, White River Area Housing Development Corp. Patricia Searles lives in one of the non-profit houses and wants more of the same quality of housing offered in Hartford. This Board approved the 2003 Plan with no changes.
- Mrs. Carbino has taken advantage of the new program for persons with an income from Social Security now being able to work with no Wage income reduction. She has been working part-time and she and her husband have been able to do some catching up with the full income. (She is in the first year of the ‘disallow’ of wage income.) The Carbino’s also moved to a larger apartment this year and she stated she was very grateful for the easy process with the Section 8 Program transfer from one unit to another.

Mrs. Carbino discussed how she has been able to work with the State Vocational Program that has helped her work out transportation issues. This has led to a part-time job and an invitation to be a member of the Board for the local ‘Turning Point Club’. This is a local entity that works with the disabled, homeless and addicts in our local community.

As a group, we are still discussing the possibility of another person for our Resident Board. At this time, we agree that our threesome is working.

Meeting adjourned at 1:00 pm.
